Brian Fowler

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

Capable and conversational meteorologist with over a decade of experience. Brian is comfortable and engaging with an easygoing manner. Interacts well with people during live field weather segments.

EDUCATION

Mississippi State University
Starkville, Mississippi
Bachelor of Science in GeoSciences, Broadcast Meteorology Emphasis

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Meteorologist   2012 to Present
KTBS-TV, Shreveport, Louisiana
Meteorologist for weekday mornings. News anchor fill-in, report weather related stories. Currently using TruView Max Weather graphics (WSI). Experience shooting and editing and has used the Dejero Live system (back pack liveshots).

Meteorologist   2010 to 2012
WAFF-TV, Huntsville, Alabama
Meteorologist for weekend mornings/evenings and primary fill in for Chief Meteorologist. During severe weather is live on air, Facebook and Twitter. Records weathercasts for radio stations. Weather related reporting in field. WSI Max, Titan and Baron Radar systems.

Chief Meteorologist   2007 to 2010
WMGT-TV, Macon, Georgia
Meteorologist for evening newscasts and live on-location weather. Led team of meteorologists. Accuweather, Galileo and SelectWarn systems. Produced weather content across all platforms.

Meteorologist   2006 to 2007
WCBI-TV, Columbus, Mississippi
Morning meteorologist. Interviewed feature guests, live on-location weather. Content producer for all digital and radio platforms.

Meteorologist   1998 to 2004
Texas Cable News, Dallas, Texas
Morning news block meteorologist 5 to 11am. Live on-location weather including WFAA. Filled-in for chief meteorologist and for WFAA and KENS-TV. Live morning radio weathercasts, WBAP 820AM. Guest host for magazine show, "Monday Mornings with Mattie."

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Meteorological Society
National Weather Association