

Kelly Franson

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

Meteorologist who started as a one-man-band reporter and a fill-in weathercaster. Twice a chief, currently Monday through Friday and weekend weathercaster in a top 25 market.

EDUCATION

University of North Dakota

Grand Forks, North Dakota
Bachelor of Science, Atmospheric Sciences
Bachelor of Arts, Communications cum laude

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Meteorologist

2007 to Present

WBTV, Charlotte, North Carolina

Meteorologist for the noon, 4, 5 & 5:30pm broadcasts three days a week and the weekend evening meteorologist. Regularly fills in for M-F evenings.

Meteorologist

2005 to 2007

KBCI, Boise, Idaho

Forecasted, produced and anchored weather segments, served as the chief meteorologist for the 4:30, 5:30 and 10 pm news and as the weekend meteorologist. Coordinated style and content of all weather segments, trained weather staff. Fill-in on-air meteorologist for fellow Fisher stations, including KOMO in Seattle. Guest meteorologist for "Abrams & Bettes" on The Weather Channel.

Chief Meteorologist

2003 to 2005

KIDK, Idaho Falls, Idaho

Forecasted, produced and anchored weather segments for 6 and 10pm news. Experience with AccuWeather and Weather Central. Also co-anchored morning and noon newscasts.

Reporter/Fill-in Weather Anchor

2002

KVLY, Fargo, North Dakota

One-man-band in Grand Forks Bureau. Substitute weather anchor for morning, evening and weekend news.

Weather Anchor

2001 to 2002

Prairie Public Television, Fargo, North Dakota

Forecasted, produced and anchored daily weather segment "Prairie Weather Update."

Undergraduate Teaching Assistant

1999 to 2001

University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota

Lab instructor for "Introduction to Meteorology."

Represented by Laurie Jacoby 310.385.8221 / jacoby1@tvtalent.com