

Amber Sullins

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

Highly respected Certified Broadcast Meteorologist. Chief Meteorologist who brings high energy, credibility, reliability and a thorough knowledge of weather graphics and forecasting tools. Recognized in the community for her continuous service in weather education. Produced and wrote Monsoon special for 2013.

EDUCATION

University of Arizona

Tucson, Arizona

Bachelor of Science in Atmospheric Science, Minors in Mathematics & Journalism

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Chief Meteorologist

September 2009 to Present

KNXV-TV, Phoenix, Arizona

Promoted to Chief Meteorologist in September of 2011. Forecast daily, evening weathercasts. Produced and delivered weekday morning weathercasts for "ABC 15 Day Break" from 4:30 to 7am before being promoted. Gave weather forecasts for Good Morning America cut-ins and appeared on GMA weekend in New York as fill-in weathercaster. Co-anchored and forecasted for "Now at 9". Handles breaking weather news and anchors monsoon specials. Posts updates to ABC15.com as well as interact on Twitter and Facebook.

Weekday Morning/Noon Meteorologist

May 2005 to May 2009

KVIA-TV, El Paso, Texas

Meteorologist for "Good Morning El Paso" and ABC-7 at noon. Provided daily forecasts using Weather Central systems as well as providing forecasts for News Radio 600, KROD and KVLC-101 Gold in Las Cruces, New Mexico. Responsible for programming and launch of the digital weather channel, "24-7 Storm Track Weather", as well as weather content for KVIA.com.

Instructor

January 2007 to April 2008

University of Texas at El Paso, El Paso, Texas

Instructor in Meteorology at the Center for Lifelong Learning covering forecasting techniques, severe weather forecasting and climatology.

Co-op Forecaster

January 2005 to May 2005

National Weather Service, Tucson, Arizona

Employment available through the University of Arizona. Responsible for forecast verifications and data analysis for the 2004 North American Monsoon Experiment.

Weather Intern

January 2004 to May 2005

KOLD-TV, Tucson, Arizona

Worked under chief meteorologist to produce forecasts for the 5 and 6pm weather segments using WSI Systems.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Meteorological Society Certified Broadcast Meteorologist
AMS Seal of Approval & Member

AWARDS

2010

Emmy Award: Best Weathercast, Rocky Mountain

2008 & 2007

Texas Associated Press Broadcasters Award: Best Weathercast

Represented by Liz Hart 310.385.8223 / liz.hart@tvtaalent.com