

Max Winitz

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

An award winning journalist, with strong writing skills and an excellent live presentation. Extensive experience on the anchor desk.

EDUCATION

Quinnipiac University

Hamden, Connecticut
Bachelor of Arts in Broadcast Journalism
Minor in Political Science

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Reporter/Anchor

2011 to Present

WWSB-TV, Sarasota, Florida

Multimedia journalist responsible for daily stories and multiple live shots. Fill-in anchor for the morning and evening newscasts.

Reporter/Anchor

2007 to 2011

WECT/WSFX-TV, Wilmington, North Carolina

General assignment reporter and weekend anchor for morning and evening newscasts.

Intern

2006

WPLG-TV, Miami, Florida

Worked with the news and sports department logging tapes, working with field reporters and conducting interviews.

Intern

2004

WTVJ-TV, Miami, Florida

Worked on the assignment desk and also as a researcher for The Rick Sanchez Show.

Anchor

2003 to 2007

Q30-TV, Hamden, Connecticut

Director-In-Charge, Anchor and Executive Producer of Q30 News, the student television station.

AWARDS

2008 Radio Television Digital News Association of the Carolinas: Consumer Report
2008 Radio Television Digital News Association of the Carolinas: Political Report
2007 Associated Press Award: Consumer Report