

Shannon Brinias

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

Distinguished journalist who has built a reputation for being credible and reliable in any news coverage situation. Known for her top-notch reporting.

EDUCATION

Pacific Lutheran University

Tacoma, Washington
Bachelor of Arts in Communications and French, Minor in Political Studies

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Anchor

2012 to 2015

KOVR-TV, Sacramento, California

Anchored weeknight news at 5 and 10 pm. Actively engaged in story generation and formulating content of news coverage. Promoted brand and product through extensive social media work. Contributed to leading newscast to "most-watched late new" status. Winner of national Gracie Award given to a local news anchor by the Alliance of Women in Media in 2012.

Anchor

2005 to 2012

KKTV-TV, Colorado Springs, Colorado

Anchored weeknight news at 5:30, 9 and 10pm. Gather information and write stories and cover breaking news. Developed social media contacts via Facebook and Twitter. Heavily involved in community work and often emcee of various events.

Reporter/Anchor

2004 to 2005

KIRO-TV, Seattle, Washington

Enterprised and reported live daily. Served as fill-in anchor.

Anchor/Reporter

2001 to 2004

KMGH-TV, Denver, Colorado

Anchored 2 hour news and talk show. Generated, researched and presented live field reports. Promoted from general assignment reporter.

Anchor/Reporter

1998 to 2001

KING-TV, Seattle, Washington

Co-anchored top rated newscasts. Delivered breaking news stories under tight deadlines.

Anchor/Reporter

1994 to 1998

KGW-TV, Portland, Oregon

Served as anchor and general assignment reporter.

Anchor/Reporter

1992 to 1994

KXLY-TV, Spokane, Washington

Co-anchored top-rated weekend newscast. Fill-in weathercaster for KXLY broadcasts and sister stations.

Represented by Liz Hart 310.385.8223 / liz.hart@tvtaalent.com