

Kathryn Burcham

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

Dynamic live reporter who covers local and national breaking news. An investigative journalist who asks tough questions and uncovers award-winning stories. Trusted and respected by viewers. Fluent in Spanish.

EDUCATION

Western Kentucky University

Bowling Green, Kentucky
Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and Spanish
Minor in History

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Reporter/Anchor

June 2011 to Present

WSOC-TV, Charlotte, North Carolina

Consistently leads the reporting team with enterprise stories and investigative pieces. Manages social media to attract sources and communicate with viewers. Frequent fill-in anchor. Posts stories to station website.

Reporter/Anchor

February 2008 to May 2011

WHIO-TV, Dayton, Ohio

Developed a beat in western Ohio/eastern Indiana which resulted in winning more viewers. Multi-platform journalist who collaborated daily with radio and newspaper on story coverage. Awarded a national Edward R. Murrow award for uncovering unsafe drinking water in a community that led to the award of a million dollar grant. Fill-in anchor.

Bureau Chief/Anchor

August 2006 to February 2008

WMBD-TV, Peoria, Illinois

Twin-Cities bureau Chief who oversaw all aspects of the bureau including: acting assignment editor, producer and reporter. Helped implement a "Taking Action" brand with investigative reporting that resulted in the prosecution and conviction of a former city employee for theft; removal of sensitive information from a government website; and shed light on a cover up in the Bloomington Police Department.

AWARDS

- 2010 Edward R. Murrow Award: Best Video Investigative Reporting
- 2010 Society of Environmental Journalists Award: National Outstanding TV Story
- 2009 Ohio Associated Press Award: Best Reporter

Represented by Liz Hart 310.385.8223 / liz.hart@tvtalent.com