

Craig Gold

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

AMS sealed meteorologist with a decade of experience forecasting in varied climates including severe weather in the Midwest and Hurricanes and Tropical storms in Florida.

EDUCATION

Mississippi State University
Broadcast Meteorology Program

University of Miami
Coral Gables, Florida
Bachelor of Science in Communications

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Weekend Meteorologist/MMJ

2009 to 2014

WPEC-TV, West Palm Beach, Florida

Responsible for forecasting, producing and delivering weekend weathercasts and filled in on other newscasts. Served as executive producer for weather-related special projects and as MMJ reporter.

Morning Meteorologist/MMJ

2006 to 2009

KTKA-TV, Topeka, Kansas

Weekday morning meteorologist (promoted from weekends 2007). Extensive experience forecasting severe weather and extended live breaking weather coverage. Responsible for MMJ reporting.

Weekend Meteorologist/MMJ

2005

WTXL-TV, Tallahassee, Florida

Forecasted, produced and delivered weather on weekend newscasts. Handled breaking weather events, including Hurricane Dennis. Shot, wrote and edited packages as an MMJ Reporter.

Weekend Meteorologist/MMJ

2004 to 2005

WJHG-TV, Panama City, Florida

Responsible for forecasting, producing and delivering weather for weekend newscasts. Handled breaking weather events, including Hurricane Ivan. Served as MMJ reporter.

SPECIAL SKILLS:

Weather Central, WSI, TruVu Max, Barons, AccuWeather, ENPS, Ellington web-posting program, P2 cameras, Grass Valley Newsedit, Avid & Final Cut.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

Member American Meteorological Society, AMS Seal Holder

Represented by Liz Sherwin 310.385.8243 / sherwinl@tvtalent.com