

Justin Hinton

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

An enterprising, inventive reporter who gets exclusives. An anchor with energy yet a conversational style. Strong world view with a year abroad in Egypt and Korea. Emmy award winner who is the go-to reporter on national stories.

EDUCATION

University of California, Berkeley
Berkeley, California
Bachelor of Arts, Mass Communications

American University in Cairo
Cairo, Egypt
Journalism Emphasis

Yonsei University
Seoul, South Korea
Journalism Emphasis

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Reporter/Anchor

October 2014 to Present

WLOS-TV, Asheville, North Carolina

Weekend morning anchor. Reporter covering national stories, most recently Hurricane Matthew, riots in Charlotte, the Charleston church shooting and historic flooding in Columbia. Uses interactive stand-ups and live shots to advance the story. Part of a newly created "Innovation Team" designed to develop inventive storytelling methods and grow audience both digitally and on-air.

Reporter/Anchor

September 2012 to October 2014

KFDM-TV, Beaumont, Texas

Led 6pm newscast (highest rated newscast on station) as breaking news reporter, then reported later at 10pm. Utilized interactive stand-ups and live shots to advance the story. Served as fill-in anchor/producer on weekend newscasts.

News Associate/Producer

September 2011 to September 2012

KXAS-TV, Dallas, Texas

Served as the key field producer for Olympic segment "Hometown Hopefuls", conducting interviews with elite athletes from the Dallas/Fort Worth area hoping to compete in the Summer Olympic Games. Field produced anchor packages that aired during the afternoon newscasts. Associate produced multiple newscasts.

AWARDS

2016 NATAS Emmy – Best Live Reporting

2013 Texas Associated Press Broadcasters Association – Best Series

Represented by Laurie Jacoby 310.385.8221 / jacoby1@tv talent.com