

Eric Kane

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

Energetic reporter with a vibrant personality, connecting with viewers to deliver hard-hitting news both on-air and digitally. Aggressive and efficient in ability to enterprise stories and network for sources.

EDUCATION

Keene State College

Keene, New Hampshire
Bachelor of Arts, Communications & Film Production
Minor in Broadcast Journalism

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Reporter/MMJ

January 2013 to Present

WHDH-TV, Boston, MA

Enterprise stories each day. Provides coverage on live and major breaking stories. Shoots, writes and edits lead stories. Uses social media to promote digital content and engage with viewers.

Reporter/MMJ

January 2013 to Present

WVEC-TV, Norfolk, Virginia

Deliver stories live on location during 4PM, 5PM and 6PM weeknight newscasts. Shoot, edit and produce stories for broadcast. Responsible for writing up to three stories each day. Research, develop and enterprise story ideas for editorial meetings. Digitally savvy across all platforms.

Reporter/Anchor/Producer

June 2011 to December 2012

WLUC-TV, Negaunee, Michigan

Co-anchor and produce weekday morning newscast. Primary fill-in for main morning anchor. Write, shoot and edit packages daily. Develop and enterprise stories as well as report live on location and in studio.

Intern

December 2010 to May 2011

New Hampshire Public Radio, Concord, New Hampshire

Wrote and produced readers and sound pieces for broadcast. Edited and post-produced segments for magazine-format show. Wrote scripts and pre-interviewed guests. Assisted with developing social media strategy and goals for program

SKILLS

Proficient in Adobe Premiere, Adobe Audition, Avid, ENPS, iNews, Edius, Final Cut and Clip Browser

Represented by Mike Bothwell 310.492.4485 / mbothwell@tvtaalent.com