

Evan Koslof

c/o Napoli Management Group
700 North San Vicente Blvd., Suite G820
Beverly Hills, California 90069

CAREER SUMMARY

Award-winning reporter and anchor, there is no holding back the potential of this rapid-rising journalist. Courted in his first year in the field, he took on the weekend anchoring, overall management of the Sussex County Bureau for WBOC. Currently reporting for WUSA in D.C. – covering two elections, from inaugurations, protests and all in between – you will not find a more approachable and authentic professional.

EDUCATION

George Washington University
Washington, D.C.
Bachelors of Arts, Journalism and Mass Communication

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

“Verify” Segment Reporter, Political Fact-Checker January 2020 to Present

WUSA-TV, Washington, D.C.

Dispels rumors and misinformation on the “Verify” segment program from the station. Face of the “Verify” brand with fact-checks on political claims and reports. Created segments that are then dispersed across 67 Tegna-owned stations across the country.

Morning Show Reporter / MMJ

September 2016 to January 2020

WUSA-TV, Washington, D.C.

Pitched stories daily with the reporting team while shooting, writing and editing all his on-air segments.

Sussex County Bureau Chief, Anchor

December 2013 to September 2016

WBOC-TV, Milton, Delaware

Created and delivered on-air anchor reporting for weekends. Coordinated and oversaw three-person reporting team and in-house photojournalist.

Reporter

June 2013 to November 2013

WBOC-TV, Salisbury, Maryland

Shot, wrote and edited packages as one-man-band.

AWARDS

Winner, 2019 Capital Emmy Awards, Outstanding Reporter, Political Winner, 2019 Capital Emmy Awards, Outstanding Story, Team Coverage, "#ALLNATS: The Final 24 Hours"
Winner, 2019 Capital Emmy Awards, Outstanding Story, Politics/Government, "Don't Forget Us–The Fight For VCF"
Winner, 2019 Chesapeake AP Broadcasters Awards, Outstanding Serious Feature
Winner, 2018 CABPA, Best One-Man Band, Large Market
Winner, 2016 CABPA, Best Reporter, Small Market

SKILLS

Fluent in conversational Spanish. Highly knowledgeable and trained in three-point editing (Edius, Adobe, FCP). Proficient in camera operation.

Represented by Seth Mayeri 332.223.4027 / smayeri@tvtaalent.com