CAREER SUMMARY

A trilingual reporter (Spanish, French, and English) with local, national, and international network experience. Lead story presence, source-driven reporter.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

National Correspondent   2020 to 2023
ABC News / Disney
Covered breaking news stories live across the country, often leading ABC's flagship shows including World News Tonight with David Muir and the country's most watched morning show, Good Morning America. Reporting led frequently to exclusive interviews, such as the Tyre Nichols family, who sat down live with her moments after the footage of their son's murder was released.

Reporter/MMJ   2018 to 2020
WXIA-TV, Atlanta
Shot, wrote, and delivered live reports at least twice a day. Enterprised top and exclusive stories for 5pm, 6pm, 10pm, and 11pm newscasts. Uncovered chase policies for several police departments in the city following a deadly crash. Innovated the first bilingual news reports and immigration explainers on air and digital platforms. Bilingual skills broaden newsgathering among Hispanic viewership. Wrote web articles in both Spanish and English.

Correspondent/Producer   2012 to 2018
CNN, Atlanta
First dedicated reporter in Washington covering US politics and foreign policy for CNN affiliates worldwide in English and in Spanish. Bureau Chief/Correspondent fill-in Havana, Cuba. Gained first access into drug kingpin El Chapo's tunnel after his escape. Produced major news events on site including the 2016 earthquake in Ecuador and Obama's historic visit to Cuba. Coordinated daily news coverage throughout Europe, Africa, Middle East, Asia and the Americas by liaising with CNN's regional bureaus across the globe. Supervised and managed a team of producers and researchers for CNN.
