

Arturo Santiago

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

Solid, credible anchor and live reporter bringing over fifteen years of experience to the team. Heavy background in breaking news and enterprise reporting.

EDUCATION

Wayne State University
Detroit, Michigan
Bachelor of Arts in English

SPECS Howard School of Broadcast Arts
Southfield, Michigan
Specialized Training in Audio/Video Production

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Reporter/Freelance 2012 to Present
KNTV-TV, San Francisco/San Jose, California
Reports live on breaking and general assignment news.

Primary Anchor/Managing Editor 2008 to 2012
KCOY-TV, Santa Barbara-Santa Maria, California
Anchored the Central Coast news at 5, 6 and 11pm on KCOY and the 7 and 10pm on Fox. Conducted special reports and town hall meetings. Also was the managing editor of news content.

Anchor/Reporter 2005 to 2008
KCNC-TV, Denver, Colorado
Co-anchored weekend morning news. Covered various areas of general assignment reporting including breaking news.

Reporter/Anchor 1999 to 2008
KING-TV, Seattle, Washington
Reported breaking news live and in-studio and wrote news packages. Fill-in anchor.

Reporter/Anchor 1998 to 1999
KSTW-TV, Seattle, Washington
Reported daily on general assignment stories. Also a substitute anchor for 10pm newscasts.

Anchor/Reporter 1995 to 1998
WEYI-TV, Flint, Michigan
Wrote, produced, and hosted local community talk show, "Community Concern". Anchored morning show and reported breaking news. Substitute anchor for 6 and 11pm newscasts.

Anchor/Reporter 1994 to 1995
WPHM-AM 1380, Port Huron, Michigan
Anchored afternoon drive newscasts. Reported and wrote news packages for CNN Headline News.

AFFILIATIONS

Asian American Journalist Association