

Laura Skirde

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

AMS-sealed meteorologist with nearly two decades of experience. A versatile and strong on-air talent whose background also includes reporting and hosting.

EDUCATION

Mississippi State University
Broadcast Meteorology Program
Certificate of Broadcast Meteorology

University of Colorado
Boulder, Colorado
Bachelor of Science in Broadcast News, Honors

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Morning & Noon Meteorologist/ Anchor 2009 to Present
KOVR/KMAX-TV, Sacramento, California

Forecasts and presents weather on two morning programs from 5am to 10am weekdays. In addition to weather, also serves as third anchor on "Good Day Sacramento" and does weather for noon programs. Responsible for school visits and producing web content and forecasts.

Meteorologist/ Reporter 2002 to 2009
KXAN-TV, Austin, Texas

Served as weekend evening meteorologist. Additional duties as fill-in anchor for weeknight weathercasts. Also responsible for environmental and science reporting. Trained on Genesis Live Baron FGasTrac, Vipir Radar, Live Dual Doppler Radar, AWS Live Weather Net and LiveStrike systems.

Weather Anchor/ Reporter 1998 to 2002
WEEK-TV, Peoria, Illinois

Served as weather co-anchor for the number-one-rated weekday morning news program. Additional duties anchoring news and interviewing guests as well as general assignment and health reporting.

Anchor/Reporter 1996 to 1998
KGWC-TV, Casper, Wyoming

Anchored weeknight newscasts and served as weathercaster. Also responsible for reporting and co-producing 5:30 and 10pm newscasts.

News Intern Fall 1993
KUSA-TV, Denver, Colorado

AWARDS

2002 American Meteorology Society Seal of Approval

Represented by Liz Sherwin 310.385.8222 / sherwinl@tvtalet.com