

Adam Tuss

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

CAREER SUMMARY

An experienced and versatile anchor/reporter who has covered transportation and land use as well as general assignment news and sports.

EDUCATION

Fordham University

Bronx, New York
Bachelor of Arts in Communications and Broadcast Journalism

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Reporter/Anchor

2012 to Present

WRC-TV, Washington, D.C.

Transportation beat reporter, covering various transportation issues facing viewers on a daily basis. Live and breaking news along with enterprise reporting. Sunday anchor and fill-in anchor for weekday newscasts.

Reporter/Writer

2004 to 2012

WTOP-FM, Washington, D.C.

Led the station's "Sprawl and Crawl" franchise, exploring transportation and land use issues that directly affected millions of listeners on a daily basis. In-depth reporting on transportation issues to give listeners a better understanding of how transportation projects impact their lives.

Columnist

2008 to 2010

The Washington Examiner, Washington, D.C.

Penned opinion articles on transportation issues throughout the Beltway.

Reporter/Anchor

2003 to 2004

WILM-AM, Wilmington, Delaware.

Anchored weekend newscasts and reported live and breaking news.

Reporter/Writer

2001 to 2004

WCBS-AM, New York, New York

Reported and wrote on day to day news affecting the greater New York metro area.

Sports Reporter

1999 to 2001

WFUV-FM, New York, New York

Sports talk radio host and play-by-play commentator. Covered all major professional and college sports in the greater New York Metro area.

AWARDS

2012 Edward R. Murrow Award

Represented by Laurie Jacoby 310.385.8221 / jacoby1@tvtalent.com